

Dynamite

Christina Aguilera

Looking for love hidden in your soul
I try to get in but I found a wall
All I can do is to tear it down
'Cause ain't nothing that'll stop me now
So what can I do?
Just to lead you to my loving boom
Be ready for the big explosion
(Don't run)
'Cause I'm gonna make you mine
All you'll feel is commotion, emotion
(Don't stop)
Now I've got some dynamite
You won't believe in what you'll see
(It's hot)
I'll take you to hell tonight
It's bad but I have the devil in me
(No way back)
I turned on my dynamite
