

Glynis

Smashing Pumpkins

Here's a name you cannot forget
Her name is Glynis, yes
And with these tears of respect
Conforms a sadness
For anyone who's ever lost
One who's dearest, and the love of a friend
On our worried knees
Given to all beliefs
Scarecrows and disease haunt us all
Oh, bury your heads in the sand
Oh, bury your heads
So have we stumbled from grace
Are we being punished for fate
My God is subtle and great
He can't be wounded
By the gossip and the hate of the frightened
Who took their paths on the sand, yeah
Fear that grips us all
Gives us an awful sound
Can't help anything but ourselves
Oh, bury your head in the sand
Oh, bury your head, yeah
Oh, bury your head
