

I Was Born 10000 Years Ago

Matt McGinn

I was born ten thousand years ago
There's nothing in this world that I don't know
I saw Peter, Paul and Moses playing ring around the roses and i'll whip the man who said it isn't so

A pansy who lived in Cartoom took a lesbian up to his room they argued all night, about who had the right to do what and with which and to whom

I was born ten thousand years ago
There's nothing in this world that I don't know
I saw Peter, Paul and Moses playing ring around the roses
and i'll whip the man who said it isn't so

There was this young fellow called Dirken who was always jerkin' his gherkin his mama said 'Dirken, stop jerkin' yer gherkin'
'Yer gherkin's fer ferkin not jerkin'!

I was born ten thousand years ago
There's nothing in this world that I don't know
I saw Peter, Paul and Moses playing ring around the roses
and i'll whip the man who said it isn't so

A plumber who lived in Dundee was plumbing a lass by the sea and as he was plumbing she said 'someone's coming' said the plumber, still plumbing, 'it's me'

I was born ten thousand years ago
There's nothing in this world that I don't know
I saw Peter, Paul and Moses playing ring around the roses
and i'll whip the man who said it isn't so

There was this young lady from Norway who hung by her toes from the doorway she said to her young man 'get off the divan' I think i've discovered one more way

I was born ten thousand years ago
There's nothing in this world that I don't know
I saw Peter, Paul and Moses playing ring around the roses
and i'll whip the man who said it isn't so

This word is wrong but until the correction can be found it has been included the way it sounds.

Lyrics Submitted by Mc Crossan

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>