

Full Moon Crazy

Honor Society

I don't know what you thought this was gonna be
You're standing there, you're looking good
But I don't wanna see you
The walls are moving in closer, I head for the door
But you're standing in front of the handle
I can't handle the way that you're smothering me
I don't wanna see you
You're up, you're down, you smile, you frown
You're unpredictable
You bring me too much stress, baby
So put yourself in check
I don't need no drama in my life
You're not that special anyway
In fact you're getting much colder
Acting bipolar, ruining my day
I don't need no drama in my life
I've had enough of you, all the things you put me through
'Cause you're flaky, you're shaky, need someone to save you
Girl, you're full moon crazy, crazy
Got to my car dropped my keys
You're chasing after me
Then she said burning red you'll be sorry
You throw my keys at me and I can't believe
That you had such a crazy reaction
Unattracted the way that you acted
And now I gotta leave
You kiss, you yell, all the lies that you tell
You got me on my knees

You're wandering in the streets
And I'm begging you to leave, baby
I don't need no drama in my life
You're not that special anyway
In fact you're getting much colder
Acting bipolar, you're ruining my day
I don't need no drama in my life
I've had enough of you, all the things you put me through
'Cause you're flaky, you're shaky, need someone to save you
Girl, you're full moon crazy

Remember when we met, when everything was perfect
What happened to that girl?
If she ever comes back my heart is always open
The moon's in position so make your decision
I don't need no drama in my life
You're not that special anyway
In fact you're getting much colder
Acting bipolar, you're ruining my day
It's time to get over your pride
You're not that special anyway
In fact you're getting much colder
Acting bipolar, you're ruining my day
I don't need no drama in my life
I've had enough of you, all the things you put me through
'Cause you're flaky, you're shaky, need someone to save me
You're full moon crazy, you're full moon crazy, baby
I said you're full moon crazy, you're full moon crazy
