

Champagne Si, Agua No

Jimmy Buffett

Folks, gull reef regrets the water shortage.
Wild night out there!
Water in the sea, water from the sky, no water in the club,
But while the pump gets repaired, let's live!
If the water can't flow, the wine can!
Champagne party in the lobby! Champagne si', agua no
Let it rain, let it blow
To hell with the h2o
Champagne si', agua no The gull reef club's not too ship shape
Time for a party time for a break
Tonight all our troubles will soon disappear
Cause champagne is cheaper than water down here Champagne si', agua no
Champagne si', agua no A toast to the french who gave us these bubbles
A toast to your host who stands in this rubble
Running this hotel is no piece of cake
So cut me some slack people give me a break Champagne si', agua no
Champagne si', agua no A toast to columbus, arawaks and caribs
To pirates and patriots, rascals and thieves,
The limbo, the cha cha and what we love most
A free champagne party put on by our host Champagne si', agua no
Champagne si', agua no
