

Both Hands

David Bazan

if I'm not losing sleep I'm probably over it might take a couple of beats for me to decidedidn't think you'd take this long to make up for lost time can't help wondering why it still feels likeboth hands over my eyes both hands over my eyes
sometimes twice a week we make ourselves vulnerable we get a little peek over enemy lineseven as what weighs on me is bubbling over
I understand I can't sweat what mystery hides
both hands over my eyes
both hands over my eyesOh
