

Shit on the Radio (Remember the Days)

Nelly Furtado

You liked me till you heard my shit on the radio
Well I hate to say but pop ain't going solo
You liked me till you heard my shit on the radio
But now I'm just too mainstream for you, oh no You liked me till you seen me on your TV
Well if you're so low below then why you watching
You say good things come to those who wait
I've been waiting a long time for it I remember the days when I was so eager to satisfy you
Be less then I was just to prove I could walk beside you
Now that I've flown away I see you've chosen to stay behind me
Still you curse the day I decided to stay true to myself You say your quest is to bring it higher
Well I never seen change without a fire
But from your mouth I have seen a lot of burning
But underneath I think it's a lot of yearning Your face, the colors change from green to yellow
To the point where you can't even say hello
You tell me you'd kill me if I ever snob you out Like that's what you'd expect from me, like that's what I'm about I remember the days when I was so eager to satisfy you
And be less then I was just to prove I could walk beside you
Now that I've flown away I see you've chosen to stay behind me
And still you curse the day I decided to stay true to myself It's so much easier to stay down there guaranteeing you're cool
Than to sit up here exposing myself trying to break through
Than to burn in the spotlight hoping fine
Turn in the spitfire hoping fine, scream without making a sound
(Hoping fine)
Be here and looking down
(Hoping fine)
Because we're all afraid of heights I remember the days when I was so eager to satisfy you
And be less then I was just to prove I could walk beside you
Now that I've flown away I see you've chosen to stay behind me
And now you curse the day I decided to stay true to myself
Myself, myself, myself, myself, myself, myself [Incomprehensible]
Why ya hurt me, hurt me, hurt me, hurt me, hurt me, hurt me, so so
Leave me down, down, down, down low, leave me down
Da down, down da down da down, down, down
[Incomprehensible]
Shit on the radio
Shit on the radio
Shit on the radio

Shit on the radio
Shit on the radio
