Pete Yorn

Play me a song...
Play me a song
Sing your heart out
Expecting the sun
I got what I wanted and it wasn't enough
I got what I wanted when you showed up
I got what I wanted and it's never enoughI drove out to the white trash beach
On a brief vacation
I'd felt freer than I had in a long time
I wondered if its cause you were goneI got what I wanted when you showed up
I got what I wanted and it's wasnt enough
I got what I wanted when you showed up
I got what I wanted and it's never enoughSurfers protect the actors from flashers
Fathers and sons talk it out like brothers
The water doesn't sting as much in the summer
The waves can carry you homeTo the girl with the shapes and another life
A freckled complexion and squinting eyes
You want so much to tell her but it feels like a lieI got what I wanted and it's wasnt enough
I got what I wanted when you showed up
I got what I wanted and it's never enough..never enoughWhen you talk it makes me cringe you want so bad to have meaning
But you're empty and draining
You're so 4th street
I can't take it
I know I shouldn't care
But you're lifes intersecting where mines disconnecting
But you're lifes intersecting where mines disconnectingI got what I wanted when you showed up
I got what I wanted and it's wasnt enough
I got what I want when you showed up
I got what I wanted and it's never enough..never enoughthat could be bad for u both
