

Kitty Kat

Empress Of

Don't take me by the hand and walk me through with pity

If I was a man, would you still do the same?

I'm fending for myself when you still call me pretty

Let me walk away

Let me walk away

Let me walk away

Let me walk away

Let me walk away

Let me walk away

Let me walk away

Let me walk away Don't kitty, kitty cat me like I'm just your pussy

Any other night, you'd treat me just the same

I'm fending for myself when you still call me pretty

Let me walk away

Let me walk away

Let me walk away

Let me walk away

Let me walk away

Let me walk away

Let me walk away

Let me walk away
