Golden Ring

Neneh Cherry

I wasn't born, born to stay
Thought that I'd buy you
A golden ring, golden ring for your finger
Yeah, a golden ring for your finger, umI was a woman that was born to travel
I'd go anywhere that whims would allow
Now I'm gonna buy a ring
A golden ring for your finger
A golden ring for your finger
A golden ring for your finger, yeahI thought you'd never ever relate to a stranger
On the thousand years to late
Now I'm going to buy a ring, yeah
A golden ring for your finger
A golden ring for your finger, yeah
A golden ring for your finger
