Give Me a Little More Time

Drake Bell

Another drink another roller dice
Another night I paid the price
And too many times I turned way good advice
Give me just a little more timeI fell in love only once in my life
We'd never fight, well maybe once or twice
Then he came along now this whiskey is my wife
Give me just little more timeAll my regrets carry weight
I'm broke and tired of losing my faith
Lit cigarette with her lipstick stain
Whispering sadly to meAll my regrets carry weight
I'm broke and tired of losing my faith
Lit cigarette with her lipstick stain
Whispering sadly to me
