

Loser Gets It All

Black Sabbath

It's a loaded dice, that you throw this time
If you turn the ace, it'll turn out fine
When you spin the wheel, and you get your call
South of the line, well, the loser gets it all
One too many days, one too many nights
You cried too many tears, had too many fights
And you know it's a bad time, bad time to lose
God knows there's no good time
Too many days and too many nights
You cried too many tears, had too many fights
And you know it's a bad time, bad time to lose
Yeah, yeah, bad time to lose
