

In The Name Of God (Live At Rockstad Falun 2008)

Sabaton

Hide from the public eye, choose to appear when it suits you
Claim you're just, killing woman and children
Fight, when you choose to fight, hide in a cave when you're hunted
Like a beast spawned from hell, utilizing fear Chosen by God or a coward insane, stand up and show me your face!
Suicidal, in a trance, a religious army
Fight without an uniform and hide in the crowd
Call it holy, call it just, authorized by heaven
Leave your wounded as they die and call it "God's will"
Run, when it's time to pay, fear consequence of your action
Reappear when you're almost forgotten
Dream of a world in peace, yet you cause pain and destruction
Kill your own, a response of your action
Chosen by God or a coward insane, stand up and show me your
face!
Suicidal, in a trance, a religious army
Fight without an uniform and hide in the crowd
Call it holy, call it just, authorized by heaven
Leave your wounded as they die and call it "God's will"
Captured in all your lies, fear is in your eyes
Creature who has gone insane, your war is in vain
Trapped in a cage of stone, we'll destroy your home
Consequence of your action
Captured in all your lies, fear is in your eyes
Creature who has gone insane, your war is in vain
Trapped in a cage of stone, we'll destroy your home
Consequence of your action
Chosen by God or a coward insane, stand up and show me your face!
Suicidal, in a trance, a religious army
Fight without an uniform and hide in the crowd
Call it holy, call it just, authorized by heaven
Leave your wounded as they die and call it "God's will"
Suicidal, in a trance, a religious army
Fight without an uniform and hide in the crowd
