Dimension

DeeJay Delta

I fell down in the desert, baby, yeah
Well, I had nothing but a piece of paper, oh yeah
I had to write something down
And I found myself alone
Then I let go of everything into another dimensionThe purple haze is in the sky
See the angel's wicked eye
All these things we must try
Until we see the reasons why, oh yeahLightning crash on the hill tonight, yeah
And I got a feeling everything is gonna be alright
Then a horse came running to me
Said, we're gonna go to the sanctuary
Then a storm began to blow into another dimensionThe purple haze is in the sky
See the angel's wicked eye
All these things we must try
Until we see the reasons why, yeah yeahI got lost in the desert, baby, yeah
I found temples made out of a paper, oh yeah
They all try [Incomprehensible]
Building dreams in front of their homes
Then I let go everything into another dimension, yeah
