

Frankenstein

Lenny Kravitz

A lie he broke and beaten
And better have alive
My heart is slowly beating
Don't leave me here to die 'Cause I need love (love)
Yeah, I need loveÂ (love)
You say that I'm your babyÂ
But I feel like Frankenstein
I need love I try so hard to please you
You're never satisfied
Will you ever release me yeah?
I'm tossin' twirls to swine But I need loveÂ (love)
Sister, I need loveÂ (love)
You say that I'm your baby
But I feel like Frankenstein
I need love The lie that you are leading
Will never let you shine
Your words are so deceiving
But yet they taste like wine Can't help yourself from creeping
Can't help yourself from lying
One more day of this shit and I'll lose my mind But I need loveÂ (love)
Baby, I need loveÂ (love)
You said I was your savior
But I feel like Frankenstein The life that you are living
Will never let you shine
Your words are so deceiving
But yet they taste like wine I need loveÂ (love)
But, I need loveÂ (love)
Yeah, I need loveÂ (love)Â sister
Yeah
But I need love
But I need love
Sugar, uh
But I need love (but I need love)
Uh, baby
But I need love
Can you give someÂ
I need loveÂ (but I need love)
I beg you baby
But I need love

I need,Â I need,Â I need love
