Doney Gal

Don Edwards

We're alone Doney gal in the wind and hail,
We're driving them dogies out along the trail,
Rain or shine, sleet or snow,
Me and my Doney gal we're bound to go.

We ride the range from sun to sun,
For a cowboy's work is never done,
Rain or shine, sleet or snow,
Me and my Doney gal we're bound to go.

We're swimming rivers along the way,
And pushing for that north star day by day,
Rain or shine, sleet or snow,
Me and my Doney gal we're bound to go.

Well a cowboy's life is a dreary thing,
For it's rope and it's brand and it's ride and it's sing,
Rain or shine, sleet or snow,
Me and my Doney gal we're bound to go.

Steers are asleep on the new bed ground,
I'm drifting my Doney round and round,
Rain or shine, sleet or snow,
Me and my Doney gal we're bound to go.

Round the campfires flickering glow,
We sing the songs from long, long ago,
Rain or shine, sleet or snow,
Me and my Doney gal we're bound to go.
Me and my Doney gal we're bound to go.
