Little Big Town

One in a million, Mama That's good enough for me And you can't make me stay here anyway Now that I'm 18With everything she had in a duffel bag She set out to show the world She was more then just a homecoming queen And daddy's little girlIn a cloud of dust on a Greyhound bus She crossed the Cook County line Slept all the way to Nashville Big dreams running through her mindShe said, "Sure as I'm breathing I'm gonna be a big star someday" 'Cause she was jumping right into the deep end On a leap of sweet blind faithIt's about hoping, it's about dreaming It's about never not believing It's about taking a walk out on the wire And never looking downIt's about living instead of dying It's about spreading your wings and flying Yeah, yeah, yeah, it's all about tryingIt's been six years since she left home And she hasn't made it big yet Oh, but there's no second guessing, baby She's got no regretsShe still works late shift down At the Greasy Spoon Cafe When she brings you out your milkshake You just might hear her sayIt's about hoping, it's about dreaming It's about never not believing It's about taking a walk out on the wire And never looking downIt's about living instead of dying It's about spreading your wings and flying Yeah, yeah, yeah, it's all about tryingIt's not whether you win or lose It's getting in the gameIt's about hoping, it's about dreaming It's about never not believing It's about taking a walk out on the wire And never looking downIt's about living instead of dying It's about spreading your wings and flying Yeah, yeah, yeah, it's all about tryingIt's about hoping, it's about dreaming It's about never not believing (It's all about trying) It's about taking a walk out on the wire And never looking down

(It's all about trying)It's about hoping, it's about dreaming It's about never not believing (It's all about trying) It's about taking a walk out on the wire And never looking downIt's about hoping, it's about dreaming It's about never not believing It's about taking a walk out on the wire And never looking downIt's about hoping, it's about dreaming It's about never not believing It's about taking a walk out on the wire And never looking down taking a walk out on the wire And never looking down
