Rainbows And Roses

Roy Drusky

A rainbow always shows up when the storm is through
To decorate a fresh green world where life can start anew
Then the roses show their glory and the sun comes shining through
But there's no rainbows nor no roses in my stormy world with you
Oh I know I'd see the rainbows and the roses
If the storm that's raging in our world would end
Why can't we be happy like we used to
And bring the rainbows and the roses back again
[guitar]
I don't know what happened to the love we knew
I wouldn't care what happen now if I knew what to do
To part these clouds of sadness and bring the sunshine through
So the rainbows and the roses would come back for me and you
Oh I know I'd see the rainbows...
And bring the rainbows and the roses back again
