Buried Alive

Cass McCombs

Waking up to the breath of the ore, in the sea of Black
If you cut a worm in two the other half will grow back
If Im alive or dead I dont really care as long as my Souls intact
Buried aliveStinking corpse, I smell but cannot see, you hateful neighbor!
Pride, monomania, everything from Earth, topaz vapor
Hi-chloridize polyethylene resin lacquered newspaper
Buried aliveMaybe Im wrong
Maybe Im waking for the day
