

Younger Than Springtime

Andy Williams

Younger than springtime are you
Softer than starlight are you
Warmer than winds of June
Are the gentle lips you gave me
Gayer than laughter are you
Sweeter than music are you
Sunlight and moon beams
Heaven and earth
Are you to give me
And when your youth and joy
Invade my soul
And fill my heart
As now they do, then Younger than springtime am I
Gayer than laughter am I
Sunlight and moon beams
Heaven and earth
Am I with you
