

You A Dummy

Chamillionaire

[Intro]

Speaking with a purpose but some folks out there be hatin'
They be sayin' money talks I talk it but you ain't relatin'
Some people in a business try to cheat me like they say
But I am the "Mixtape Messiah" and the South is my congregation[Chorus]

You ain't know I get the dough then gets some mo

You don't believe me you a dummy

You ain't know I get a load for every show

You don't believe me you a dummy[Verse 1]

Used to be stylin' on the court got it eliminated in my sport
Now that Jerseyville coach can see that I'm hotter then a torch
All the seven foot white boys that use to tell me that I was short
But money longer then a mother but I'm to tall to drive a Porsche
I play my album for the source on the clock radio of course
Now Im in the middle of nowhere doing shows until Im horse
Now my middle finger is up and I show the industry no remorse
Im the Messiah of mixtapes quiet get up and rejoice
Gettn screwed before I was chopped never was signing Michael Watts
If the nots wasn't in the box while I'm thinkin' bout buyin' stocks
Buyin' Jordans outta the picture didn't have the money to by the socks
Now I'm sittn on 28s ruff ridin' like the lotts
Used to be workin' at fast food they had me washin' pans and pots
Now I got fans that will stand ruttin' for me like I'm Pac
Who would've known I would blown for makin' song bout the cops
Cops pulln up at my shop tellin' me they like my drops[Chorus]

You ain't know I get the dough then gets some mo

You don't believe me you a dummy

You ain't know I get a load for every show

You don't believe me you a dummy

CEO that I can flow and I'm bout to blow

You don't believe me you a dummy

Guest who got the last laugh now

You don't believe me you a dummy[Verse 2]

DJ Drama that's my boy

DJ Smallz that's my dawg

DJ Khaled keep it thoro label exits like the laws

They will tell you they are helpful if it goes wrong they not involve

Tony Neil that's my partna I'll be on them conference calls

Used to know a girl name Flamiesha her girl looks like she jaws

She was captin' cause she was captin' on the drill team and thought them was jawers
When I was after wasn't a rapper back in the day I used to draw before I used to ball at the time I was with Paul
Choppin' up that number four that was back when I was with Swisha
Had a partner name Amaud rest in piece homey I miss ya
Was a man with of plan but realize they always diss ya
That's until you win a Grammy bet them ladies try to kiss ya[Chorus]
You ain't know I get the dough then gets some mo
You don't believe me you a dummy
You ain't know I get a load for every show
You don't believe me you a dummy
CEO that I can flow and I'm bout to blow
You don't believe me you a dummy
Guest who got the last laugh now
You don't believe me you a dummy
