

Loud Silence

Dilana

When your day is dark
And the sun is cold
Its pouring
Your dreams dissolve
You wanna give up can't hang on there's nothing you believe in

Your crying on your knees
Asking oh God why me?
Pains got you crazy
You're feeling so lonely
And no one can hear you
You know I'm hear for you

Hang on
Hold on
It's a loud silence

Like a bird
You want to be high
And you're dying to kill this time
You're aching and breaking
Don't give up please
There's something to believe in

You're dreaming of straight line
You're touching that sacred life
The fears spinning in your mind
Keeps you locked up in side
It seems there's no wind
Oh please let me end

Hang on
Hold on
There's a loud silence

You gotta
Hang on
Hold on
There's a loud silence

Yeah

Screwed up and twisted
You're dancing with demons
You're screaming for needles
To take all your pain
You going insane
As the voices get louder, louder, LOUDER

Hang on
Hold on
It's a loud silence

Hang on
Hold on
It's a loud silence

And the voices keep screaming louder, louder
