

Where Did The Beat Go?

Pink

uh oh uh oh oh oh (ba da ba dum) 2x
I can hear planes flying over my head
Just hours before you occupy my bed
In our darkness, we conjured up sunlight
In our haste, our need, our thirst we lost our sight
But I was inspired, tracing lines on your face
To the poetry, the first time I heard your name
When I trip from your lips
My heart was like a kick drum
And it silenced the guilt
I wasn't raised to hurt anyone

Bridge:

Uh oh

Does he know

That I'm lyin' in the afterglow

That I'm lyin' but I can't go

Can't say no

Make him think he's crazy

While his paranoia grows

What he should be asking

Is where our love go?

Then I wouldn't be baskin'

In another man's after glow

Chorus:

Where did the beat go?

Where's the beat?

Where did the beat go?

So how do I justify to the judge and the jury

The voices in my head that caused this fury

Never had to play with matches to start a fire

But it got so cold and I thought I'd forgotten desire

At first I was your concubine

And then your Madonna

You couldn't see anything beyond your baby's mama

How long is lonely supposed to last?

I was naked and waiting for you to come back

Bridge

Chorus

There's a cause and effect, although I took the steps
I dove off the bridge because I had nothing left
All I ever wanted was you oh oh
And in the absence of you
I fell through
Bridge
Chorus
Where did the love go?
oh oh oh oh
Where did the beat go?
oh oh oh oh
Where did the beat go?
oh oh oh oh
Where did the love go?
