

Love Seat

QUARTERBACKS

sitting on your loveseat making conversation
we have identical intentions for tonight
and i'm pretty sure
you wanna to kiss me
but i'm too nervous
to lean in
and find out if i'm righti keep touching your knees whenever we agree
the room is so warm
your lips are overwhelming me
the way you form your letters each word just makes it better the formation's so distracting that the content barely matters your paragraphs
are an epitaph
for my self restraint
my patience is waning
not sure
how long i can wait
but you're looking at me with full moon eyes
so soft and clear and bright and i know it will be worth it
even if it takes
all night
if you kissed me when i walked through the door i probably wouldn't like you as much
but these anxious hours of anticipation
will just make it
that much better
when our lips

finally touch
