Remnants

Jack Garratt

Let me be something you use up
For one night
Burn the remnants of my youth in
Fire and light
Pull me apart and I will fade
Spill out the truths I've learnt

I am gone
I am remnants pouring from the pyres, pyres
They keep me young
Keep my remnants pouring from the pyres, pyres

I'm too weak to carry you
And I will fall
Into the pyres, burning resurrection from the embers
I'll stand tall
And you'd only weight me down

I am gone
I am remnants pouring from the pyres, pyres
They keep me young
Keep my remnants pouring from the pyres, pyres

Savour our lovers
Are we honest
Are we honest
Are we

Savour our lovers
Are we honest
Are we honest
Are we

Savour our lovers
Are we honest
Are we honest

Savour our lovers
Are we honest

Are we honest, honest, honest

Savour our lovers
Are we honest

Savour our lovers
Are we honest
Are we
