God Bless the Models

Zeromancer

Love, love, love makes you blind, blind
Lies, lies, lies tear you downPlenty of time when you're dead
To be the perfect girl
There's plenty of room in your bed
To make a perfect worldLove, love, love makes you blind, blind
Lies, lies, lies tear you downOut of a fucked up head
Comes a perfect girl
Out of a fucked up head
One perfect worldI want to fall a million floors
I'm gonna breathe through open pores
I'm gonna scream out open doors
God bless the modelsTime, time, time makes you learn, learn
That love, love, love you will have to earnOut of a fucked up head
Comes a perfect word
Out of a fucked up head
Comes a perfect worldI want to fall a million floors
I'm gonna scream through open doors
You'll make the headlines when you die
God bless the modelsOut of a fucked up head
Comes a world of lust and greed
Out of a fucked up head
Comes a life of luxuryOut of a fucked up head
I'm gonna be there when you die
Out of a fucked up head
Don't cry 'causeGod bless the slave, slave, slave to fashion
God bless the slave, slave, slave to fashion
God bless the slave, slave, slave to fashion
God bless the slave, slave, slave to fashion
