

The Year I Disappeared

The Glass Child

You push and turn
I keep running in the dirt chasing your mind always behind And my song goes on but you're always my concern
Stealing my mind
Stoping my time CHORUS
There was a bottle in the ocean
a bottle in ocean
A letter of devotion
I threw in the ebb that night
to leave this mess behind From the ashes you appeared
I stood still as you got near
It was the year I disappeared
in the ocean of your watered eyes
And now we're drowning in our darkened nights We've got past and done and gods above to match
But what can I do with you?
We will always be out of tune
Chasing our faults like sinners gone wrong
You will never forgive my songs
And I don't dare to sing along I've got them deep inside of me
Buried in this dark, blue sea Can't you see you're choking me? There was a bottle in the ocean
a bottle in ocean
A letter of devotion
I threw in the ebb that night
To leave this mess behind From the ashes you appeared
I stood still as you got near
It was the year I disappeared
In the ocean of your watered eyes
And now we're drowning in our darkened nights

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>