Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Sold are the eyes I have
And cold is the wait for nothing
Dark write my name in a long line
How is it possible for you to tryIt's coming true
I changed my name but I will pass it on to youJourney
No present thoughts
Coming
darkness willIt's coming true
I changed my name but I will pass it on on to you
Our thoughts entwine
You speak, I hear the words behindI wave from the edge of the pier in vein and to the dreams of sleepers
Marked, I've had this stain for a long time
Call on the bird long beforeIt's coming true
I've changed my name but I will pass it on to you
Our thoughts entwine
You speak, I hear the words behind
