Arise (ben Moody Mix)

Flyleaf

Tell the swine
We will make it out alive
Thereâ€™s a note in the pages of a book
So sleep tonight
Weâ€™ll sleep dreamlessly this time
When we awake weâ€™ll know that everythingâ€™s alright

Sing to me about the end of the world
End of these hammers and needles for you

Arise and be
All that you dreamed
All that you dreamed

There's snow on your face
And your razor blade
The twilight is bruised
And there you lie

Weâ€™ll cry tonight
And in the morning we are new
Stand in the sun
We'll dry your eyes

Arise and be
All that you dreamed
All that you dreamed

Arise and be
All that you dreamed
All that you dreamed

Hold on to the world we all remember fighting for
There's still strength left in us yet
Hold on to the world we all remember dying for
There's still hope left in it yet

Sing, sing
Arise

Arise and be
All that you dreamed
All that you dreamed

Arise and be
All that you dreamed
All that you dreamed
(Hold on to the world we all remember fighting for)
Arise and be
All that you dreamed
All that you dreamed
(Hold on to the world we all remember fighting for)
Arise and be
All that you dreamed
All that you dreamed
(Hold on to the world we all remember fighting for)

(Arise and be
All that you dreamed
All that you dreamed)

(Arise and be
All that you dreamed
All that you dreamed)
