I'll Move Along

Nanci Griffith

This flesh and bone ain't much protection
For an honest heart like mine
A broken home for good intentions
Damaged inventions of my designI'll move along
(Time to move along)
I'll move along
(Time to move along)
I'll move along
(Time)I'm slow to move these feet of clay
You passed me by now you're in my way
And I'll take my change at my own damn pace
I'll move along one dayI'll move along
(Time to move along)
I'll move along
(Time to move along)
I'll move along
(Time)Don't say much, I was born to listen
Tell me now, did I hear you wrong?
This was love not the inquisition
It was my decision we should move alongI'll move along
(Time to move along)
(Come on let's go)
I'll move along
(Time to move along)
(Come on let's go)
I'll move along
(Time)You passed my by now you're in my way
I'll move along one dayI'll move along
(Time to move along)
(Come on let's go)
I'll move along
(Time to move along)
(Come on let's go)
I'll move along
(Time to move along)
(Come on let's go)
