

I've Had It Up To Here

Weezer

Don't wanna find myself homogenized
Don't wanna become the very thing that I despise
Don't want my mommy feedin' me culture with a spoon
Don't wanna end up with as much edge as a balloon

Don't want my ideas polluted by mediocrity
Don't want my sentiments diluted
This is important to me

I've tried to give my best to you
But you plugged up your ears
And now I just can't take no more
I've had it up to here

Don't wanna be another boy next door
Don't wanna pander to the masses anymore
Don't need the whole wide world to love me, don't wanna win the human race
Don't need my music to be less well known than my face

Don't wanna compromise my out for universal appeal
Don't wanna be mass consumed
I'm not a happy meal

I've tried to give my best to you
But you plugged up your ears
And now I just can't take no more
I've had it up to here

I've moved out from the sticks
Nobody believed in me
Had to cut my way up
Overcome all kinds of adversity
Oh, if you think I need approval
From a faceless john, oh
That's where you're wrong

I've tried to give my best to you
But you plugged up your ears
And now I just can't take no more

I've had it up to here

(I've had it)

(I've had it)

I've had it up to here
