Slow Down

Ben Jelen

All of my answers and all my reasons
And all my excuses they never asked
'Cause all of my answers they keep on changing
I spend my life waiting for the next
No, I just keep on moving
No, I just keep on pushing forward
No, I forgot what I was looking for, no
And all their illusions, I won?t believe them
I?ll always believe what I can?t forget
'Cause all of their reasons, they keep on changing
I spend my life waiting for the next
No, I just keep on moving
No, I just keep on pushing forward
No, I forgot what I was looking for
Well I?d trade wisdom back in for innocence
To get away from all my lies
I?d trade wisdom back in for innocence
To get away from getting by
I?d trade wisdom back in for innocence
Just for one look through those eyes
