I'd Be Lyin'

D-side

I still remember how your lips felt and how your kiss melted mine, oh baby, i still get chills when i hear our song, cause it takes me back in time, i lie awake, and your memory haunts me, i start to shake cause it kills me you dont want me, chorus
if i told you that i dont wanna hold you, i'd be lyin',cause im dyin' for you, if i told you it dont hurt me to see you again, i'd be lyin', cause im cryin' for you, i miss the touch of your body so much, that im ready to jump out of my skin, whoa, the way you move mekes me crazy, cause i know, that well never be together again it tears me up when i think of your smile, girl, and all the love thats been missing from my world, CHORUS

i never told you a lie before, and i wont start now, dont know even how, cause girl i'd be lyin',oh i'd be lyin',lyin' to you, to you, you know i'd be lyin', lyin', lyin', lyin' to you,lyin' to you, baby you know that i can't breathe without you
