Amnesia

P.M. Dawn

I'm special to me, I'm special to you, you're special to me,
We're special to each otherI think I've shown you lately, that you're gonna have to changethis world.
And you know all about the angels in your golden graces
Trying to get you to see things one way all the timeIt's crazy, but I actually do believe in love
And sometimes I think togetherness can amplify any feeling
Just like it forces us to find some new ways outYou're special to you, I'm special to me, I'm special to you,You're special to me
we're special to each otherYa'll don't love enough to call it something you create
And, ya'll don't hate enough to allow yourself to make the samemistakes
And you don't know me well enough to put me in my place
And because I have amnesia, I can't remember...
That I'm youI can't remember...
I can't remember...
Help me to rememberI'm special to me, I'm special to you, you're special to me,
We're special to each otherEvery time you speak to me, I feel like I'm speaking to myself
And, you know it's hard, when everybody thinks they know you
When in all honesty...
They don't know themselvesShow me exactly what I need to know to feel better
Because I feel responsible for things I know are not my doing
As you're responsible for things I do to myselfYou're special to you, I'm special to me, I'm special to you,You're special to me
We're special to each otherYa'll don't love enough to call it something you create
And, ya'll don't hate enough to allow yourself to make the samemistakes
And, you don't know me well enough to put me in my place
And, because I have amnesia, I can't remember...
That I'm youI can't remember...
I can't remember...
Help me to rememberI don't love enough to call it something I create
And, I don't hate enough to allow myself to make the same mistakes
And, you don't know me well enough to put me in my place
Because I have amnesia, I can't remember...
That I'm you
