The Northern End

Dynazty

Across the world that never bends
I'll sail until my life will end
On unyielding faith I will depend
Rushing forth over the sea
Awaiting our destiny
Engulfed in blood and miseryDon't despair we will prevail
Our cause could never fail
Your lives are in my hands
Trust and you will make it safe to the other side
Your destiny you will define, hold strong until we all
Are waiting for the wind to take us back so we can see again
The sun on the northern end
Guide our souls back home so we can live again
On the shores of the northern endLonging for my home's embrace
I challenge death to a final race
No quarter shown, no saving grace
I guess your life is not your own
We all are slaves to serve the throne
On foreign soil we die aloneRest your head my weary son
For all time your work is done
Now let your body go
You are now in the company of brothers
Where we are holding one another, to the light is where we go
We're waiting for the wind to take us back so we can see again
The sun on the northern end
Guide our souls back home so we can live again
On the shores of the northern endOur future and past we have to forsake
A predestined choice we're gonna have to make
My life slipped through my hands
Beyond the end lies freedom for eternity
Find solace in infinity, we fight then we sail home
We're waiting for the..

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/