Hardened

Devildriver

Outlast, outrun and kill the strong
We run as one, the hunt begun
I lay in wait out with my pack
Till dawn of day when we attackThe first one's down without a sound
Then comes the second round
Where screams of pain and throws of lust
Have just begun to quench usWith tooth and claw we use our might
To tear them down, secure the fight
To sounds of screams that fill the night
The end is near, the meal in sightIf might makes right then we ignite
Like moth to flame, they cry in pain
The ones who escape remember our name
Remember our name, remember our nameHunger drives a wolf
From the woods when he comes to hunt
Kill or hell, stay for goodHardened, hardened towards your world
Hardened, hardened towards your words
Hardened in eternal vigil
Hardened like steel, hard as hellThis thirst is on, the carnage on Take out the weak, take out the strong
We come in quick and hit them hard
And cut them down with little soundWith tooth and claw we use our might
To tear them down, secure the fight
To sounds of screams that fill the night
The end is near, the meal in sightIf might makes right then we ignite
Like moth to flame, they cry in pain
The ones who escape remember our name
Remember our name, remember our nameHunger drives a wolf
From the woods when he comes to hunt
Kill or hell, stay for goodHardened, hardened towards your world
Hardened, hardened towards your words
Hardened in eternal vigil
Hardened like steel, hard as hellSend them packing, stranger in my home
Good riddance, I never knew you
In the eyes of the fight the righteous bleeding
The blood that boils but God, I love the killingLook to the skies, see the anger is seething
I'm gonna come with all at you, all at you
Full guns out and blazing
The bodies fall as the stench thicknessHardened
I'm hardened towards your world

Hard as hell, hardened
I'm hard as hell, hardened
