

Samson

Donnett Thompson-Hall

Sampson:

ooh yeeaaas

There's a story we all know
And it happened long ago
To a man called Sampson
Servant of the Lord

All his strength was in his hair
The Holy Spirit placed it there as a vow was made that he would serve the Lord
We all know what happened to him
How he met Delilah there
How he transferred all his love from God to her

But she really didn't care
So she cut off all his hair and the Spirit of the Lord departed from his life

Chorus*

He said one more time, Lord
Anoint me
One more time
Send the oil of thine anointing
Fill me with Your power divine
Lord I give myself to thee
Make my blinded eyes to see
Send your Spirit and Lord anoint me, one more time

mmmm yeeaaah

Hallelujah

And so the years went by Sampson missing both his eyes
Asked a child to lead him to the temple floor
Right there he breathed a simple prayer
He said Father, if you really care
Send Your Spirit and Lord anoint me, one more time

Chorus*

He said one more time, Lord
Anoint me, one more time
Send the oil of Thine anointing
Fill me with your power divine
Lord I give myself to Thee
Make my blinded eyes to see
Send Your Spirit and Lord anoint me
Just one, Just one more time

He said one more time, Lord
Anoint me one more time
Send the oil of Thine anointing
Fill me with your power divine
Lord, I give myself to Thee
Make my blinded eyes to see
Send Your Spirit and Lord anoint me
Just one, Just one more time
Send your Holy Spirit, and Lord anoint me
One more time
Send your Holy Spirit and Lord anoint me
One more tiiiiimmmmeee
