

I Do

A Rocket to the Moon

You get lost on your way back home, just about anywhere.

You sing off key to the radio, like nobody's there.

And I love that your Sunday's best is a holey pair of jeans

And I don't stand a chance when you smile. Yeah the longer that were together, the good keeps on getting better,

I never thought that I would ever find someone like you.

And every day you show me I can, just when I think that I can't love you anymore than I do, I do. You change your hair color every week, cause you're never quite sure of it.

And I know when you're mad at me, cause you tell me what I did

And all I think is beautiful, when I think of you, and I still can't believe that you're mine. Yeah the longer that were together, the good keeps on getting better, I never thought that I would ever find someone like you.

And every day you show me I can, just when I think that I can't love you anymore than I do, I do. All I see is beautiful, when I look at you. Yeah the longer that were together, the good keeps on getting better, I never thought that I would ever find someone like you.

And every day you show me I can, just when I think that I can't love you anymore than I do, I do. I do.
