

5th Melody

Dying to Know

verse1

all the things i can change, holding hands suffering, it's a new lie, selling the thoughts i've become. touching souls make believe, kissed by night time release. passing moments, she is the lock with no key.

pre chorus1

open your eyes, why cant you see you lead me.. on

chorus1

all the thoughts that are wrong, all the things i've become, holding on to a love, that walks away..

verse2

i dont think i can take more of this i believed, its the reason. melody whispering fate. just to see something bleed more emotionally, here's an old lie, surfacing how can this be?

pre chorus2

open your eyes, why cant you see you lead me.. on

chorus2

all the thoughts that are wrong, all the things i've become, holding on to a love, that walks away..

you lead me.. on

chorus3

all the thoughts that are wrong, all the things i've become, holding on to a love, that walks away..
