

Slow Down

Hoobastank

Sometimes I forget to breathe
Life can be overwhelming
Always pushing and pulling on me
Away from what really matters
And I keep forgetting to remind myself
I keep forgetting to remind myself
I keep forgetting to remind myself
Slow down
No one ever said this journey was a race
Whats the hurry?
Slow down
Ill go anywhere I want at my own pace
Without a worry
Ive gotta slow down
Its never easy letting go
When the feeling is so familiar
Of always being in control
Maybe its an illusion
Slow down
No one ever said this journey was a race
Whats the hurry?
Slow down
Ill go anywhere I want at my own pace
Without a worry
Slow Down
Let go now
Slow Down
Slow Down
Let go now
Slow Down
I hope that its not too late
Cause everythings all a blur
On and on
On and on
I hope that its not too late
Cause everythings all a blur
On and on
On and on
I keep forgetting to remind myself
