Being Kind (Can Hurt Someone Sometimes) [Live]

REO Speedwagon

Please don't worry now about the mornin'
When it's time we'll sip our wine and sleep
Woah, but I've been known
To love more than one person
Woah, and I've been shown
That bein' kind can hurt someone sometimesListen to my words now look no further
What you've seen is what I mean no more
Woah, but I've been known
To love more than one person
Woah, and I've been shown
That bein' kind can hurt someone sometimesDon't dream of answers cause you know I've none to give
They burn like cancers they just won't let you liveI've been known
To love more than one person
And I've been shown
That bein' kind can hurt someone sometimes
