

In Denial

Butcher Babies

One change
One kill
These things you've
Lost all your sight
Night of regress
Your promise lost
Here tonight
Empty love lost
In one sweet moment of pride
One chance one kill
Six years forgotten in lifeGoodbye my love these
Signs are strong
All bets are off
Let's call it a day
One chance
One kill
You gave it awayHard to swallow
All these years
They meant nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing
All these scars you gave to me
They meant nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing
You're in denial
You're in denial
You're in denialOne fault
One slip
Regret is drawn on your face
No turning back
What was is now such a waste
Hardened by spite
The trust snuffed out by a lie
One fault one slip
Here's to the final goodbyeGoodbye my love these
Signs are strong
All bets are off
Let's call it a day
Last chance
Last stand
You gave it awayHard to swallow
All these years

They meant nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing

 All these scars you gave to me

They meant nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing

 You're in denial

 You're in denial

 You're in denialDenial!Hard to swallow

 All these years

 They meant nothing

 All these scars you gave to me

They meant nothing, nothingNow let me tell you

 That my giving

 In return has been reserved

 Just for you

 And let me tell you when you

 Watch me rise I did it all

 In spite of youHard to swallow

 All these years

They meant nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing

 All these scars you gave to me

They meant nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing

 You're in denial

 You're in denialDenial!
