

What a Crying Shame (Live in Austin, Texas)

The Mavericks

wasn't I good to you didn't I show it and if I ever hurt you I didn't know if you think I don't care then you're mistaken my love was always there but now my heart's breakin' ooh baby, ooh what a crying shame to let it all slip away
and call it yesterday
ooh baby, my life would be so blue my heart would break in two ooh what a crying shame
'cause I believed in you from the beginning
I thought our love was true but now it's all ending ooh baby, ooh what a crying shame
ooh what a crying shame ooh what a crying shame ...
