Waves

Altered Sky

Would you understand this life
If you had the time to try?
Could this be a sign to fight off this feeling?

You'll be the one to decide
When your heart is beating
All you need is believing
In whatever you wanna decide
Nowâ€™s your time

Itâ€™s a long road home
But the lights are on
And im running,
Itâ€™s you forever and always
I'm still running, running

Itâ€™s a long road home
But the lights are on
And im running, running,
Itâ€™s you forever and always
I'm still running, running

Be another fool to say
That I would miss another day
Cross my heart I hope to die
Before I've fallen down
We'll get sick some of the way
But thatâ€™s what we bleed for
Weâ€™ll never give it up no
Surrender another day for always

Itâ€™s a long road home
But the lights are on
And I'm running, running,
Itâ€™s you forever and always
I'm still running, running

Weâ€™ll stay
But weâ€™ll make it somehow
Weâ€™ll make it today

You wait
Cause you know that there's time
And weâ€™re not too late

And the waves in the rain,
I'm running home
Will crash the rocks like a runaway train
And theres a light on my face
I'll make a road to the place
I'm running home
I'll catch a falling star woah

And the waves in the rain,
I'm running home
I'm running home
I'll catch a falling star

Whoa

Itâ€™s a long road home
And I'm running, running,
I'm still running, running woah

And the waves in the rain,

I'm running home
