

Something, Something, Something Witchy

He Is Legend

Did you just assume I'd let you float across my room
In your bubblegum perfume straddling a thousand dollar broom
Once bitten, twice chewed You're mine now
yeah you
Once Bitten, twice chewed
i got you baby what can you do? You keep your eyes on me and i wont take my mouth off you Your blood and your sweat pool up like spit before vomit you taste so sticky and sweet how could you not expect me to show my teeth
Once bitten, twice chewed
You're mine now
yeah you
Once Bitten, twice chewed
i got you baby what can you do? You keep your eyes on me and i wont take my mouth off you In Purple bind you lock you away
where no light will find you my witchy slave
Once bitten, twice chewed
You're mine now
Yeah You
Once Bitten, twice chewed
i got you baby what can you do? Once bitten, twice chewed You're mine now.
i got you baby what can you do? You keep your eyes on me and i wont take my mouth off you
