

Addicted

P.O.D.

Intoxicated world, boys and girls.
Fill me up, but not the hint of self mutilation.
And let me blow my brains, go insane.
Throw it in my face, and watch me chase it.
Stimulate, wide awake, need to stop this pain inside my head, cause it's laughing at me.
Injection, explosion, burning as it surges through my vein.Cause I, I'm Addicted,
To all the colors that I see, that you hold in front of me.
And you have changed, yeah you have changed me.
Why do I love you when I know, love you when I know,Your wrongOver and over-indulges in anyone or anything that makes you feel so alive.
I am electrified, I'm so high, known to all of you, who are just out to get me.
Fascinate, magic state, cast a spell and maybe I might forget who I am.
Cowardice, selfishness, thank you for letting us watch you die.Cause I, I'm Addicted,
To all the colors that I see, that you hold in front of me.
And you have changed, yeah you have changed me.
Why do I love you when I know, love you when I know,Cause I, I'm Addicted,
To all the colors that I see, that you hold in front of me.
And you have changed, yeah you have changed me.
Why do I love you when I know, love you when I know,Your wrongLiar! You are a liar!
Liar! You are a liar!Cause I, I'm Addicted,
To all the colors that I see, that you hold in front of me.
And you have changed, yeah you have changed me.
Why do I love you when I know, love you when I know,Cause I, I'm Addicted,
To all the colors that I see, that you hold in front of me.
And you have changed, yeah you have changed me.
Why do I love you when I know, love you when I know,Your wrong
