Slick Shoes

He first one there when I was lost
He was there to help me out
And all this time you tried so hard
Not hard enoughIt's something you feel
It'll help you understandI feel it beat inside my soul
Like a pounding knock at the door
Heavy pressure in my head
Your word remains when I'm deadMelody, energy
Your wisdom follows me
When I feel
I'm in need, I see your truthIt's something you feel
It'll help you understandI feel it beat inside my soul
Like a pounding knock at the door
Heavy pressure in my head
Your word remains when I'm dead
