Babylon Fall

Mark Instinct

Ya'll ready for this?
I'm lovin' this shit.
anarchy motherfucker,
global anarchy.
New World Orphans!
My Generation, can ya hear the call?
everybody watch babylon fall!
ya ok we fake 'em all
when we creep through back streets we fuckin' city hall.
and the powers that be, don't wanna fuck with me ya know i ride with the most high 6 million deep playa (whoo!)
move back give me room
give me respect, i earned that playa i payed dues ok, never die, never lose. we burn the system
we burn the motherfucker down.
My generation, can ya hear the call?

my beautiful people, everybody watch babylon fall! (2x) ya, ok we make it hurt with that fire we in hell, and watch 'em burn and the powers that be, can suck a big fat dick cause we anarchists and we fu-fuck the whips, playa yes we can, yes we will, make a difference homie i'm talking to you!
ok, never die, never lose. we burn the system
we burn the motherfucker down.
My generation, can ya hear the call?
my beautiful people, everybody watch babylon fall! (2x)
ya, ok we kill 'em all we the ones we ignite (boo) bring down the walls and these chains we break, backs now we take back the power you hate that but fate creates that (whoo!) pussy!
recognize the sound? the walls of babylon they tumblin' down.
World Wide Orphans run the underground.
Chorus Fade Out.
