

Unforgettable

Carly Rose Sonenclar

Is that you at the door
Knocking cause you have something to talk about
But no one to tell it to, so you come to me like you do all the time. I know what you're here for Compliments and confidence is all I gave you
But I got to see your face so for me that was fine My world was, about you, but your world was only about you
You only seem to remember me when you're lonely
So now you can finally Forget me
Forget you
I can't remember what I was so into
When you feel alone
Don't try to come in anymore cause I outgrew
Your smile
Your eyes
You should know You're not that unforgettable
You're not that unforgettable
You're not that unforgettable
(get, get, get, get)
You're not that unforgettable
(get, get, get going) I used to feel so torn listening to stories about other girls instead of about me
Selfishly you ignored the signs
And now he's got me bored
Funny how the tables turn as soon as I came to my senses
With my senses at least I try My world was about you, but your world was only about you
You only seem to remember me when you're lonely
So now you can finally Forget me
Forget you
I can't remember what I was so into
When you feel alone
Don't try to come in anymore cause I outgrew
Your smile, your eyes
You should know You're not that unforgettable
You're not that unforgettable
You're not that unforgettable
(get, get, get, get)
You're not that unforgettable
(get, get, get going) Thought you would stay in my heart
But you're barely on my mind
Now I know why I should leave you so far behind You're not that unforgettable (get, get, get going)

You're not that unforgettable
(get, get, get, get)
You're not that unforgettable
(get, get, get going) You're not that unforgettable
You're not that unforgettable
