

Blessed Are Those (from Sand to Eternity, Pt. I)

Forbidden Seed

As the darkness engulfs me
I turn my gaze to the sky
Soon my visions will devour me

Cause in this night you will die

As the clouds flood the sky
Feel the truth inside
It's too late, the god's revenge on sight

As that day was at hand
For the mighty to strike
My words were twisted to lies
An old fool desperate cries

Just call their name and pray this fateful night
Just reach out to the sky
Reject your pride, the god's revenge on sight

Blessed are those who have seen your bright
Shining through the darkest night
Before your condemning pride
You were the desert's bride
